On behalf of the Kings Regional Service Commission (RSC) Board of Directors, I am pleased to announce that Andrea Davis-Hourihan has been appointed Acting Chief Executive Officer for the RSC effective June 12, 2023.

Andrea has been a valued part of the RSC team for more than a decade and has extensive experience with planning, solid waste management, and has a keen understanding of our mission to serve our community.

The board looks forward to collaborating with Andrea and her team as they focus on making our community one of the best places to live in New Brunswick.
